2023

08.03.2023

Dear colleagues, dear sailors, supporter of the Swiss Sailing League, dear all.

Following some points to keep you updated about the pre-seasonal preparation.

1. NoR for SSL Series and Women's League, Youth Cup and Master Cup

Various NoR's are published and listed in the corresponding SSL events. Work in progress for the NoR Heidi Cup and SSL Cup. Thank you, Adrian Bauder for the precious work!

2. New SSLA member: ZISC - Zürich International Sailing Club

SSLA informs with great pleasure that the Sailing Club ZISC (Zürich International Sailing Club) has joined SSLA and will start in the Promotion League 2023! ZISC is on the way to get the approval of becoming a member of Swiss Sailing.

Consequently, we will have 14 teams at the starting line in the Promotion League 2023.

3. Various changes in 2023, for sailors, umpires, boatman, event organisers and SSLA EC-Coordinators

The start of the SSL season 2023 is getting closer. As every year, changes have to be considered. Attached you will find a two pager that we urge to read.

The Handbook SSLA - Edition 2023, Version 1.1, will be published in m2S, link: Swiss Sailing League 2023 Registration Information Overall Ranking manage2sail

4. Boat No 7 - handed over

As of March 5, the J/70 fleet of SSLA consists of 7 boats. Welcome boat no 7 with the colour orange.

5. Master Cup Ascona 2023, 15-16 april 2023

Currently we have 15 registered teams. For those clubs that have not registered yet - give a go and be part. Find a flyer attached.

6. Youth Camp Tenero 2023

SSLA cancelled the scheduled camp because not having met the required minimum number of participants. We are very sorry for that.

7. Youth Cup 2023, 28-30 april 2023

Registration is open for Youth teams. Join the great event in Vevey La-Tour. See also the attached flyer.

8. SAILING Champions League 2023

An increased of Swiss participants in the SAILING champions league 2023:
